Frequently Asksed Questions

Q: Who can attend the Autism Awareness Day event?

A: The event is open to anyone in the community who is interested in helping spread Autism awareness. So ask friends, family, neighbors, teachers, and therapists to come and join us.

Q: I have a Philadelphia Zoo membership, do I need to purchase separate tickets for the Autism Awareness Day event?

A: No, if you have a yearly membership to the Philadelphia Zoo you can use that for admission. The group ticket rate for the day is for those who do not have a membership.

Q: What happens if I pre-purchase tickets and now I am not able to attend the event?

A: Not to worry! All pre-purchased tickets are valid for the date of the Event (4-15-12) until April 30, 2012.

Q: I did not pre-purchase admission tickets and now the deadline is past. How can I get tickets to the event?

A: Not to worry! The Group Rate Admission will be available at all ticket booths at the Zoo on the day of the event Just mention "Autism Awareness Day". Please note however that tickets purchased on the day of the event can only be used for that day's admission. Tickets and Parking can also be purchased and printed online. Refer to the ticket order form for directions. Go to www.asaphilly.org for the form and more information.

Q: Does the Greater Philadelphia Chapter of the Autism Society use this event as a fundraiser?

A: The main purpose of the event is to raise Awareness for Autism in the community as well as provide a fun day for families and friends in the Autism Community. The chapter does not receive a portion of the ticket sales; however donations for the chapter are solicited through the use of donation boxes on the day of the event. Monies are also raised through the sale of autism merchandise and good will donations.

Q: How can I volunteer some time helping out at this event?

A: Want to volunteer or have more questions? Call Anna at 215 884-0844 email AutismZooDay@verizon.net
